SPECIAL PRAYER REQUEST: Dear Parishioners, this is a request for special prayers for my 21 yr. old granddaughter, Alexandra Cannon. She is a jr. at Clemson University, and is to undergo brain surgery on Mon., May 12, at Brigham Women's Hospital in Boston. Alexandra has a condition called Arteriovenous Malformation. (Tangled blood vessels in an AVM do not form properly, and can weaken and burst, causing bleeding in the brain and a possible stroke or brain damage.) Please also pray for the mind and hands of Dr. Patel, her surgeon, and all the other medical personnel who will be assisting in this operation to repair Alexandra's blood vessels. Many thanks! Larisa Looby

BOOKSHELVES We have been blessed with additional books for our parish library. In fact, we need some additional bookshelves to put them on. It will take some rearrangement of our current configuration, but it will be worth it. If you have a bookshelf that you no longer need, please see Fr. Gregory.

Since we understand Communion to mean that we have all things in common, sharing an identical Faith, only those who are members of the Orthodox Church and who have prepared themselves through prayer, fasting and recent confession may participate in Holy Communion. Following reception of Holy Communion, we should stay in the church until the conclusion of the Liturgy. Our fellowship begins after we venerate the Cross and receive the Blessed Bread (of which all may partake). If you have guestions concerning the above, please feel free to speak with Fr. Gregory after Liturgy.

ON COMMUNION: The fasting rules concerning communion apply to those who are healthy enough to keep them. If for example, you require medication that cannot be taken on an empty stomach, please speak to me about the possible need to eat or drink something along with it in the morning prior to liturgy. Thanks! Fr. Gregory

CHILDREN'S BOOKS Two baskets of children's books are now located in the vestibule. behind where the greeters stand and next to the stairway to the choir loft. Children should feel free to borrow the books and can return them to the baskets.

TO OUR VISITORS WITH YOUNG CHILDREN: If you are seeking a quiet place to nurse or calm a rambunctious child, there are two rooms off of the main hallway on this floor to serve you. Our library is the second door on the left as well as our teen classroom, the last door on the left, at the end of the hallway. The library has rocking chairs, and both rooms offer comfortable couches and moderate privacy. Changing tables are located in the Ladies room on the upper level and in the Men's room on the lower level.

IT'S JUST BREAKFAST: A group of our St. Mark men meet for breakfast every 2nd and 4th Saturday of the month. Questions? See David Jefferson. Thank you!

ST. MARK WOMEN'S BOOK GROUP will meet the first Thursday of each month at 7:15 p.m. via Zoom. Watch this space for possible date changes. The next book for discussion is June 5 - "Dead Souls" by Nikolai Gogol July 3 - "Isola" by Allegra Goodman

Aug 7 - "The Shell Seekers" by Rosamunde Pilcher
